Highways Will Be Discussed During Meet At Tahoe

State Chamber Committee To Hear Ideas About Area Arteries

Officials of the Truckee Chamber of Commerce are invited to attend a dinner meeting with a California State Chamber special study group of the highway committee to be held at Tahoe Inn next Wednesday, May 23, at 6:30 o'clock.

Ross Frank, secretary of the Lake Tahoe Chamber of Commerce, announced that he had contacted William Clayton, manager of the Sacramento Valley District, and that the latter has accepted an invitation to have the group at Tahoe on that date.

The special study group, plus the district engineer and members of the state division of highways, will tour as much of the region as possible, consult with representative groups of the various counties concerning their particular highway construction problems.

It will then be the job of this study committee to compile a feasible list of highway projects, which they will present to the state highway commission on behalf of the state chamber, and continuously urge the commission's favorable consideration.

Members of the various boards of supervisors, road commissioners and chambers of commerce are not only urged to attend the various meetings scheduled, including the one at Tahoe, but are asked to assist in creating a composure of opinion from their county to be presented at the meeting.

F. W. Tarr, Chico, chairman of the regional highway committee, is scheduled to preside.

Another meeting will be held at Hotel Auburn in Auburn Thursday evening, May 24.

NORTH TAHOEITES ASK FOR AID ON CUT OFF PROJECT

A delegation from North Tahoe met with members of the Truckee Chamber of Commerce here last Thursday and secured the aid of the local organization in again urging the state to take over the Truckee-Brockway cutoff as a part of the secondary system of roads.

A second meeting will be held Monday at Kings Beach and then the combined committees are expected to attend the meeting at Tahoe City May 23, sponsored by the state chamber of commerce, for a general discussion of highway needs in this area.

M. Dixon, president of the North Tahoe Community Club, M. Kruger and A. E. Abbott comprised the visiting delegation and Charles Heller, presiding at the local meeting, named Lee Nisbet and Edward Crandall as the Truckee committee.

Taxes Cut For Floriston After Flood Damage

Twenty-two families of Floriston will have their property taxes cut because the November high water swept away the highway bridge which crossed the Truckee River between their subdivision and Highway 40.

They have no way of getting in or out by car and only a footbridge to carry their supplies across. Assessor William L. Tamblyn, who believed the value of their property had been reduced, obtained agreement from the board of supervisors to lower the levy until a bridge can be built or some other approach provided.

T. L. Chamberlain of Auburn, attorney retained by the Floriston property owners, suggested by letter the board rehabilitate a roundabout road if the bridge cannot be restored.

Engineer Recommends Four-Lane Highway 40

ROSEVILLE— Stuart P. Walsh, San Francisco industrial engineer, in a report to the Placer County Chamber of Commerce, states the widening of US Highway 40 in Placer County to four lanes is essential to the industrial development of the county as well as being necessary as a national defense measure.

The report states Highway 40 is the most heavily traveled transcontinental route in California north of Los Angeles.

The importance of the highway is emphasized by a state agency which listed 316,097, 28,670 trucks and 6,321 stages entering the state through Truckee checking station last year.

Ten years ago the cars entering the state totaled 151,395, trucks 11,191 and buses 3,123.

Cemetery Repair Assured As Work On Main Started

Water To Be Available By May 26 as Districts Co-Operate

The directors of the Truckee Cemetery District have entered into an agreement with the Truckee Public Utility District to build a pipe line and furnish water to the Truckee Cemetery.

The cost of installing the line extending from the present terminus of the district's lines at the east end of Burkhalter Avenue to the cemetery, a distance of approximately 1600 feet, is being borne by the Cemetery District.

Work was started Monday by a crew under the supervision of the foreman, T. Patterson, of the district and it is planned to have water available for use on the grounds by Saturday, May 26.

This is but one of the steps contemplated by the Cemetery Board to beautify and improve the cemetery grounds. The board bought several acres of ground adjoining the older section a year ago and have had this area mapped and plotted. It is planned to eventually extend the water line with outlets to all parts of the grounds.

Sun Beams

by Walter M. Barrett

Probably the most important project faced by the Truckee chamber of commerce and its other booster organizations is the matter of highways. Each year this area depends more and more upon its highways as a source of revenue, bringing vacationists and tourists to and through the region and providing for major industries. Recognizing this fact, officials of the chamber are calling upon service clubs and individuals to lend a hand in promoting more adequate thoroughfares, not alone Highway 40, but feeder roads as well. These latter include State Route 89 north and south of Truckee and the Brockway-Truckee cut off to Lake Tahoe. Improvement of Highway 40, with emphasis upon a four-lane route between here and Reno, is no doubt the most important issue since Nevada is planning a four-lane route to the California line, but other improvements are also important to the continued welfare of the region and the chamber is deserving of 100 per cent support from every local resident.

Truckee Court Is Not Effected By Efficiency Move

Judicial Council Suggests West County Courts Consolidation

NEVADA CITY— The state judicial council has informed the board of supervisors an efficient lower court system for Nevada County can be established by dividing the county into two justice court districts, each with a part time judge.

The council suggested the justice court in Truckee remain but that the justice courts in Grass Valley and Nevada City and the police courts in both these cities be combined into a single justice court.

The Truckee court would serve a population of only 1523, compared with 17,886 for the proposed west county court. Its maintenance is urged, however, "in order to have a system which will provide a court reasonably accessible to people of every community."

The council's suggestions were transmitted by Chief Justce Phil Gibson to Henry G. Loehr, chairman of the board of supervisors.

The department said 170,776 automobiles, 21,451 commercial trucks, 3,301 stages and 507,335 passengers crossed into this state last month to top all previous figures for the year.

STATE ASSEMBLY ACTS TO CURB LIQUOR TO MINORS

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— Minors who attempt to purchase or do purchase liquor would be guilty of a misdemeanor under the provisions of a bill passed this week by the state assembly.

The measure, sponsored by Assemblyman Lester 9. McMillan, Los Angeles, tightens the present liquor laws affecting minors so as to discourage juvenile delinquency and give added protection to dealers.

The bill, according to McMillan, is designed to punish those near the legal age who present false credentials to obtain an illegal supply of liquor.

Efforts to delay passage of the measure through an amendment offered by Assemblyman Gordon H. Hahn, Los Angeles. Hahn sought to have the words "or attempts to purchase" stricken from the bill on the plea any minor entering a liquor establishment, might be subject to the misdemeanor charge on the theory that he was there in an attempt to purchase liquor.

The amendment was voted down and the assembly went on to pass the bill unanimously. It now goes to the state senate for action and if passed will go to the governor for approval before becoming law.

SUMMIT SCENE

by FRAN COUILLARD

Last Sunday's (Mother's Day) snow flurries which merely fell to tease us mountaineers, simply terrified motorists who had reservations at the various lodges in the area, for one minute there would be an inch of slush on the highway and the next minute the sun would come out and laugh it away. Our own muddy front was jammed with the terror stricken who had left the warm valley for a Mothers Day jaunt. Some merely climbed out of their cars, called tow and garage service men, had their cars parked and then took an accommodation for the night. No sooner done than Old Sol would peek out again, dry up the mess and just when the traveler stuck his nose out of his particular temporary abode, it would start to snow again. In spite of that, all lodges state that Mother's Day was as good as usual!

The Ski Ranch looks deserted since Jack and Pat Woodard laughed at the weather which said they should tarry awhile and started eastward for New York according to schedule. Across the street Margot and Ernie Nordstrom take care of their "brood" which not only includes their small children but all those who faithfully served them all winter. Pat Nerney, Eleanor Anderson and Jack Lambres put their feet under the Nordstrom table again after their return from Eugene, Oregon, where they participated in the John Craig Memorial Cross Country ski race, and incidentally the two gals brought back trophies. We have been requested to send our "working schedule" of the Donner Trail Memorial Race to the Oregonians to help iron out some bugs in the Craig marathon. Our old winner and contestant, Hans Holaas, came out ahead as usual.

The tree cutting, lumber working, sawing and road building gangs that filter into these parts each spring are finding it kind of tough going with the temperamental weather. However, work has started and the localites, who are employed by the ski hill and lodge operators during the winter, now go to work which relieves that between season tension. The other big project which takes up a few notches in the area belt is the remodeling job on the Soda Springs Hotel. We'd like to tell you how this old hostelry will look after its face lifting job and inside tailoring but the big closed signs all over the place closely guard the secrets of its interior. We hear rumors though and the extent of the remodeling is tremendous.

The Beacon Hill Lodge crew come into the limelight this past few days with a series of events started by Elmo Moriano taking Jeannie Carder for his wife a short time ago. Congratulations! A few days after this Ray DeCamp, general utility man, was banged up in an automobile accident which was closely followed by Bob Leando, partner in the Beacon Hill enterprises, skidding on loose gravel near Colfax and landing in an Auburn hospital for facial stitches and a leg cast to support a broken ankle bone.

Donner Summit Lodge quiets down after a series of banquets and its owners take over the in-between season duties. You can find Bud Horak and Tony Donadio on desk and bar these days as they await their usual summer business. Lonnie Goss works around the place and gets ready to bring up his horse string from down below.

Brant and Doris Chaplin stay at Rainbow Tavern while work progresses in their recently acquired Soda Springs Hotel, and anxiously await the day that they can take up their residence in their hotel apartment which, we understand, is also undergoing remodeling. Across the highway from Rainbow, Helen Hogle gets ready to preside for the first time as president of the Donner Community Club at its first meeting to be held on May 17 at the Donner School House. Looks like a fine program for the first meeting. Box social, movies, grab bag, etc. If you have a new neighbor, bring him along and help him get acquainted.

At Cisco Pines Lodge, new owners Gull and English get ready to "throw a wingding" to officially announce their new proprietorship while across the highway, Betty and Tommy Vincencio of Sierra Gift Shop labor to open a highway orange juice stand in conjunction with their other activities.

We're happy to see Eleanor Johansen home again at Soda Springs after a pretty tough operation followed by a few weeks rest in San Francisco. Peg Travis, now employed at Nyack Lodge at Emigrant Gap, comes home mid-week to visit her many, many friends. Betty Horak goes to Sacramento for a few days. Wanda and Virg Misener take off for Utah for a well deserved vacation. The mountain "obys" including Bud Zorich, Tony Donadio, Art Couillard, Jim Sherritt, Max Williamson are going to be led to Placerville next week end by Milt Hogle to attend the E Clampus Vitus wingding. Some of the group mentioned are uninitiated. Oh, my! Maria Patten travels to Carmel for her mother's birthday. Margaret Merrill breaks the rule by celebrating her own birthday as well as Mother's Day on the same day. Harold and Gloria Steen return from a Mexico holiday as they express it "tired, broke, but definitely rested and happy!" Barbara and Bud Zorich also return from a short holiday. Everybody holidays but the Couillards, but the female portion of the latter mentioned awaits that portion of clam digging season when the tides are at their lowest ebb.

HOME OWNERS' QUESTION BOX

Q—What should be done if a tabletop, too close to an open window, becomes splashed by rain?

A—First, the moisture should be mopped up with a clean cloth or chamois. Then, as soon as the surface is thoroughly dry, furniture cream should be applied liberally, rubbed in, and the surplus wiped off.

Q—What color should I make my roof to blend with gray sidewalls and yellow window shutters?

A—There are numerous solid or blended colors of asphalt shingles which you might like. It all depends on your personal taste. However, you are approaching the problem backwards. Because the roof is so large and prominent, the asphalt shingle color should be selected first, and all other colors should be picked to harmonize with the roof.

Q—How can a sticking drawer be made to work easily?

A—If the sticking is not too serious, it can be remedied by rubbing wax along the top edges. If this fails, pull the drawer out and sand the edges a trifle.

Q—What kind of enamel is best for stoves and stove pipes?

A—Stoves, stove pipes and other metal objects that are subject to excessive heat can be refinished with a special, heat-resistant enamel. While designed to withstand rather high temperatures, it will not last long on surfaces which become red hot. Caution: Do not apply the finish while the surface is hot.

TAHOE WILL BE HOST TO VETS FROM BAY AREA HOSPITALS

TAHOE CITY— Vice Commander Fred Main of Tahoe Flotilla 61, U.S. Coast Guard reveals that on June 16, before noon, 36 veterans from bay area hospitals will arrive in the huge Mars seaplane for a holiday at Lake Tahoe. They will be accompanied by doctors and nurses and all their activities while here will be regulated by doctors' orders.

The big ship is scheduled to arrive over the south end of Tahoe some time before noon and will be landed and moored at a safe spot to be determined (via Tahoe's new radio setup) by prevailing weather.

The veterans will be met in boats of the Coast Guard members and will be taken in charge for the entire day. They will be taken for a sightseeing trip around the lake, weather permitting, and will land at the piers of all resorts open for the season. Guests and the general public are invited to be present on the wharfs when the boats arrive to extend a cordial welcome to the visiting vets.

Local resorts are planning whole hearted cooperation in entertaining the men and the finest of meals, accommodations and entertainment will be provided during their stay, which may be two or possibly three days, according to the advice of attending doctors.

The American Legion will be host to the boys after their tour of the lake and resorts and will then see they are safely returned t the big flying boat for the return trip.

LEITCH POINTS OUT MILLIONTH A. T. & T. "OWNER"

Importance of the Pacific Coast as a source for investment money and as a place for investment was underscored, in connection with announcement that American Telephone and Telegraph Company had just welcomed its one-millionth stockholder.

A. P. Leitch, Truckee manager of Pacific Telephone, said that over 96,000 AT&T stockholders, owning more than 2,670,000 shares live in California, Nevada, Oregon and Washington. In addition to AT&T's million owners, there are 9,300 owners of some 600,000 shares of stock in Pacific Telephone which operates in these four states.

AT&T's millionth stockholder is represented by Brady Denton, an automobile salesman, and his wife of Saginaw, Michigan, who jointly own seven shares of AT&T stock. The Denton family was being entertained this week by the company and toured places of telephone interest in and around New York.

The million mark was reached by AT&T within a few weeks of the telephone's 75th anniversary. The owners of AT&T live in 19,000 cities, towns and rural areas throughout the country and own an average of 29 shares of stock. There are 80,284 AT&T shareholders in California owning 2,310,686 shares, at the latest count, according to Leitch.

"Here, as elsewhere, improvements in telephone exchange equipment and service to match local progress are made possible by funds put into the telephone business by investors," he said.

During the past year, Pacific Telephone spent $112,215,623 in California for improvement and expansion of its facilities for service.

TRUCK OVERLOAD PENALTIES UPPED AS BILL IS PASSED

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— The assembly Tuesday beat down all amendments to a senate bill providing stiffer penalties for over loading of trucks traveling California highways and finally passed the bill 54 to 16.

The bill provides a sliding scale of fines ranging from $10 for 1,000 pounds overweight, to a maximum of $1,000 for 12,501 pounds or more.

Assemblyman Donald Grunsky, Santa Cruz, said any amendments would tend to weaken the measure, which is designed to curb overloading through making it unprofitable. Grunsky declared that under the scale of fines, truck operators would no longer find it profitable to overload for extra revenue and said the bill should end all overloading within the next six month period.

The bill faces a move to reconsider before it goes to the governor for signature.

LINDSAY INCURS DISPLEASURE OF BAY AREA SOLONS

by HENRY C. MacARTHUR
(Capitol News Service)

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— It appears inevitable that Assemblyman Francis Lindsay of Loomis, Placer County, whose assembly district is the largest in area in the state, will go down in history as the man who stopped the Marin-Contra Costa Bridge.

Lindsay's action in the assembly conservation and planning committee in passing the vote on the question of whether or not the state should loan $750,000 for plans and specifications for the bridge, bodes no good for any legislation the sixth district assemblyman may have before the legislature, including his grandiose plan for a Placer-El Dorado water conservation district.

For proponents of the bridge, including senators and assemblymen from Contra Costa and Marin Counties, are ready to do battle if only in reprisal for Lindsay's failure to vote.

After the committee meeting, comments in the hallways were such that Lindsay's ears would have burned had he not still been sitting in the committee meeting. Most of the appellations accorded Lindsay dealth emphatically with his ancestry, and the proponents of the bridge bill weren't smiling either.

Lindsay denied that his passing the vote actually stopped the bridge bill. He claimed he was not the last one on the committee to vote, and that the 4-4 tie was the result of the vote cast by Assemblyman James Silllman, Monterey, chairman of the committee.

Fact of the matter is that Lindsay could have voted before Silliman announced that "the bill is still with us." The Placer assemblyman had assured Assemblyman Robert Condon and Senator George Miller, both of Contra Costa County, not a half hour before the committee meeting that he would vote for the measure (so they said) and proponents figured they had the bill out of committee.

What Lindsay's real reason was for passing is still buried in a cloud of mist. He announced in a written statement that he felt an overall plan should be developed for San Francisco Bay, rather than attack development piecemeal. Later, he told Senators Miller and John F. McCarthy of Marin County, that "a lot of my soil conservation friends were in the audience, and while I couldn't vote for them, I couldn't vote against them either."

Asked directly whether the appearance of Harold Norton, of the department of public works, on behalf of the bill, had anything to do with his failure to vote, Lindsay denied this vigorously. Norton became embroiled in an argument the upshot of which was an order by Silliman to throw him out of the committee room.

Regardless of the outcome of the bridge bill, Lindsay's lack of action can bue engender bad feeling between the central mountain counties of the state and the bay area. Many assemblymen say that Lindsay's water district bill was a "dead duck" anyhow, but on the other hand, votes which might have gone for the measure probably will turn the other way.

The bridge bill, still in committee, is not dead. It could be moved out of committee if the Marin-Contra Costa group are able to switch only one vote, or it could be withdrown from committee by vote of the assembly. Either course means big odds, however, against the measure, as the assembly is loath to withdraw bills, and from the committee attitude, minds were apparently made up—with the exception, of course, of Lindsay.

Harry Stubley Is Named On Planning Board

AUBURN— The Placer County board of supervisors, at their latest May session, appointed Harry Stubley of Kings Beach to the county planning commission. His appointment was recommended by a petition containing 175 signatures of Tahoe area residents and a letter of endorsement from the North Tahoe Community Club.

He succeeds Constable Harry Johanson of Tahoe City, long time secretary of the commission, who who resigned last month to devote more time to his increasing duties at Lake Tahoe. His duties on the planning commission required that he travel frequently to the county seat and other Placer County communities.

Other county business covering a wide range of subjects was transacted by the supervisors.

"What are you doing to save our oil resources?"

People are concerned these days about America's supply of crude oil. They say, "If petroleum resources are beginning to run out, we ought to be careful to make them go as far as possible. What are you big companies doing to save our oil resources?"

Here's the answer to that question. Known crude oil reserves are actually 30% greater today than in 1940. And in addition to making new discoveries, the oil industry—Standard Oil Company of California along with others—is making each well and each barrel of oil yield more and more. Competition makes us produce and refine efficiently. Here are some of the ways we do it:

I'd Like to Know...

You may have heard that a suit has been filed by the Antitrust Division in Washington to break up Standard of California as well as six other West Coast oil companies. Many people have written us protesting this action, and many have asked pertinent questions about our activities. We answer all letters individually, but some points seem of general interest. We take this way of discussing them for everyone. If you have a question, we urge you to write:

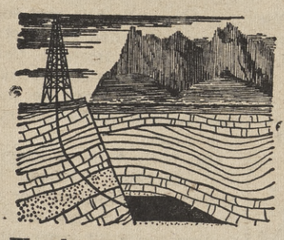
Remember the gusher? Years ago new wells were allowed to erupt. But oil men found ways to stop this waste. And now they extract three new fuels from the gas mixture.



We also prevent waste by tapping oil pools which used to be out of reach. Through research into drilling techniques we make holes curve, under mountains, for example.

Time was when only natural pressure lifted oil to the surface. Wells often "went flat." We now use huge systems to pump pressure back in, recovering much oil formerly lost.

Latest techniques help us in warring on waste. Standard uses a new "electronic brain" to compute best way to drill oil fields for greatest yield 25 years or more into the future.

Natural gas, a by-product of oil production, was once merely wasted. But oil companies long ago learned how to capture it, put this energy to work, and conserve natural oil resources.

And research in refining helps. In 1920, Western refineries were getting less than 7 gallons of gasoline from each barrel of crude. They now get 20 gallons of far better gas.

Here's Where the Pounds Pay Off

FIRST thing that people notice when they take over a Buick is the sure-footed stance this fine automobile has on the road.

You head into a curve and hold firm and true. You travel a turnpike without sway or wander.

While your wheels may dance when you hit a stretch of washboard gravel—your car holds its level course.

A lot of things account for this beautifully poised performance, but it starts with stalwart structure and ample weight—plenty of pounds where pounds are needed.

Please don't get us wrong. This isn't "deadweight." Though a Buick like the one pictured here tips the scales at more than two tons, it's as nimble as an antelope at play.

It has a generous hoodful of valve-in-head Fireball power—packing a powerful punch of velvet velocity.

It comes with the smooth magic of Dynaflow Drive*—a lightness of steering that's gently responsive to a lady's hand—a front-end geometry that's pure genius—the finest brakes ever put on a Buick.

And every wheel rides on shock-eating coil springs that are carefree and trouble-free for the life of your car.

You'll also find—by a few moments of simple arithmetic—that the pounds in this bounteous beauty pay off in another way. On a cents-per-pound basis, it will cost less to buy than anything else near its weight and power and size.

Why not visit us real soon—like the first thing tomorrow—and let us show you why you and your budget will both be happy with this Buick?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

No other car provides all this:
DYNAFLOW DRIVE* • FIREBALL POWER
4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING • DUAL VENTILATION
PUSH-BAR FOREFRONT • TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE
WHITE-GLOW INSTRUMENTS • DREAMLINE STYLING

SWANEE'S TAHOE LETTER

Tahoe City, May 14

Dear Tahoeites:

The sun shines this Monday afternoon but a chilly wind is blowing and some snow still stands in patches on the ground. White caps dot the lake and the water is too rough on this end for even the bravest of fishermen. Fishing continues good, I am told, especially in the vicinity of the Taheo Boat Company's piers. Forty boats were out over Saturday and Sunday, it was reported, and good catches were made.

Have a card from the Rodney Yeakels, formerly of Lake Forest who are now residing near the capital, that a little daughter was born to them on May 6 in Sacramento. She weighed in at 8 pounds 11 ounces and has been named Tamera Jean.

Also received in the mail Saturday a beautifully illustrated travel folder of United Airlines Stratocruiser and a resume of the wonders of an Hawaiian vacation. Wondered who could have sent it and why, then noted a penciled note under the picture of the big plane. It was from Mrs. C. O. Valentine, who evidently was en route to the balmy isles with her husband. She wrote "More later" so will be expecting a few lines before long telling of their vacation there.

Came too a letter from Mrs. Bertha Mawdsley, who is vacationing alone at the family summer home at West Point, beyond Placerville. She told me that the Eric Druhns, formerly employed in the Sunnyside district at Tahoe for a number of years, had to sell their San Francisco restaurant when she was taken ill and had to undergo surgery. She was making good progress toword recovery and they planned a trip east some time this month when she is stronger.

Hear Cpl. Howard Carnell is geting far more fun out of his 30-day furlough since he purchased last week a spiffy canary yellow club coupe.

Cp.. Dick Astle of Kings Beach, now stationed at Ladd Field in Alaska, observed another birthday on Tuesday of this week. He is finding life a bit more interesting these days, since he was transferred to assistant mechanic on the flight staff of the big planes stationed there. His brother, Jimmie, of Tahoe City celebrated his 22nd birthday on Sunday last with a dinner party at home, topped off with a lovely birthday cake. Helping him observe the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Astle and daughter Phyllis of Kings Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frey and son Clayton of Tahoe City, Ira Lee Rye of Reno and wee year old daughter, Diana Lee Astle. The honoree received many lovely gifts.

Truckee-Tahoe Lumber Company's new Tahoe City store is enjoying lively patronage following its complete remodeling. Mrs. Lucille Cross is back to serve her summer customers with an entirely new and complete stock of finest houseware. She is assisted by Mrs. Mary Stark who joins the staff this year. Soon to be placed in service at the yard is a 195[illegible] three-quarter ton Ford pickup which has arrived in Truckee.

Old timers who will remember tall, rangy and pleasant Gurney Breckenfeld will be pleased to know that on June 9 he will be married in New York to Miss Shirley Farmer of that city.

Had a few hours leisure on Sunday so went a'calling despite the scattered snow storms. Stopped in first at the Theodore Schleuters where I found Mr. S. a bit stronger than on my previous visit, although he is finding recovery a slow and tedious process. He has lost a little weight and doesn't seem to have as good an appetite but can get around better and feels a little stronger. Then I continued on to the Lynn Kishbaughs' little home in Pineland which always reminds me of Hansel and Gretel's gingerbread house in the children's fable. It is so uniquely fashioned, yet offers much room and every accommodation within and is kept beautifully by its mistress. Found them both at home and learned their neighbor, Gene Bagwill, who lives across the street, is again in a Reno hospital for a week with an eye infection. Couldn't depart the Tract without seeing the John Quinns and their two kiddies and Mrs. Jimmie Easton and little Kathryn. The latter was only a month or so old last time I saw her and she has grown into quite a lovely little blonde, now seven in long distance hauling between months old. Her daddy is engaged Los Angeles and Sacramento and way points. At the Quinns I found little Colleen, whom I took care of for some time after she arrived home from the hospital with her mother, so grown up I scarcely recognized her. She too will be seven months old on May 16 and is just full of life and ready smiles. Got to see her brother Mike just after he woke from his nap, and his dog Spike, who was his constant companion, out playing in the snow all winter. The Quinns had been fishing all morning but no fish. Learned from Mrs. Henry Sams, whom I met at the Kishbaughs, that she had heard from Betty Gilbert, wife of Captain Bob Gilbert, former principal of Tahoe Lake School, that the good captain is back from Japan, which was as far as he got with his contingent and is ill in a San Francisco army hospital. Further word is being awaited by his friends here to learn what the trouble is.

Can't wind up my weekly letter without a word of commendation to the boys of U.S. Coast Guard Tahoe Flotilla 61 and the members of the American Legion who are performing such a wonderful service for the 36 veterans of the bay area hospitals who will be their guests at Lake Tahoe for several days, arriving June 16. These brave men are worthy f oevery consideration from us all and yet how much more could be done to make their days more pleasurable. This group at Tahoe is a comparatively small aggregation and yet what a large and beautiful service they are contributing. The story appears elsewhere in the Sun but here's hoping other groups will heed their example and bring a bit more sunshine into the restricted lives of afflicted veterans. It's thoughtfulness such as this that warms the cockles of the heart.

Here's wishing you all the best of good health and good luck. As ever, Swanee.

STATE BOUNDARY WAS CAUSE OF LITTLE CIVIL WAR

Complications, legal, extra-legal and just plain spontaneous that attended the creation of the Nevada territory 100 years ago, were explained in an interesting and humorous talk by Justice Charles Merrill of the Nevada supreme court to members of the Reno Rotary Club Monday.

Natural Boundary

Justcie Merrill, pointing out that the top of the Sierra Nevada mountains is the natural boundary between California and Nevada and was so recognized by California when its constitution was framed and boundaries set forth in 1859, also pointed out that Congres did funny things then as it does now. In passing the resolution that admitted California to statehood, Congress, for some unrevealed reason, used latitude and longitude and consequently no one knew for sure where California ended and Nevada started.

Trouble Starts

That lead to a lot of trouble. Aurora, for instance, was the county seat of Esmeralda County, Territory of Utah, and also county seat of Mono County, California. An Aurora man was speaker of the Nevada territorial assembly and an Aurora man at the same time was speaker of the California house of the legislature.

But is was in Roop County, Nevada territory, where Susanville was the seat of government, that war broke out and injunctions were many and complicated.

Roop County War

Isaac Roop, Honey Lake Valley rancher, was a leader of the group who believed that area belonged in Nevada and a county was duly created. Judges and sheriffs were busy but finally the sheriff of Plumas County, California, backed by 180 armed men and one cannon, arrived in Susanville to take over the reins of government.

The Honey Lakers were defiant, set up a fort and shooting followed. No one was killed but a few were wounded and finally a truce was declared on February 15, 1861, pending the final boundary settlement.

Aurora, which is or was south of Carson City, landed in Nevada but Sierra Valley and Honey Lake Valley landed in California.

Justice Merrill unravelled the complicated legal tangles that enveloped the whole affair for the benefit of his audience.

Among the interested spectators was Arthur Couillard of Soda Springs, an active member of the Truckee Rotary Club.

The first Masonic Hall in California was established at Benicia in 1850.

SUPER HIGHWAYS BOND ISSUE BILL IS MOVING SLOWLY

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— State Senator Randolph Collier's bill for a billion dollar bond issue to finance a strategic system of highways throughout the state is out of one committee and into another.

The senate transportation committee, of which Collier is chairman, voted the bill out with a do pass recommendation but moved it to the senate finance committee for further consideration.

The measure contemplates an increase in revenue by the simple process of placing a sales tax on gasoline, which is now exempt from the state sales tax.

The revenue raised plus an increase on the "in lieu" automobile taxes and an increase on the diesel fuel tax, would be used to retire the bonds in a period of 20 years.

If the measure gets through the senate and assembly, it would be submitted to the people for approval or disapproval at the 1952 elections.

318,000 Hunters Noted In State in 1950

SACRAMENTO— There were slightly more than 318,000 licensed deer hunters afield during California's 1950 hunting seasons, it is revealed by a tally of deer tags sold by the bureau of licences, division of fish and game.

H. R. Dunbar, bureau chief, announced a total sale of $318,102 worth of tags in 1950. The figure represents actual sales reported by 3115 license agents prior to April 1.

TRUCKEE CHURCH NOTES PROGRESS DURING YEAR PAST

The quarterly conference of the Community Methodist Church of Truckee last Sunday was indicative of the growth of the local church, according to Rev. A. A. Carmitchel, pastor.

Many of the figures revealed were far beyond expectations, he said, which indicates that Truckee is growing. Membership increased by 12. Church accounts showed income of $1757. The church school had an income of $390 and the Woman's Society of Christian Service reported an income of $325 for the year.

The list of new trustees and stewards will be announced later, Carmitchel said.
